GEOGRAPHY & ANTHROPOLOGY
CAREER DAY !!!

Friday,
March 20th,
2015

2:30 - 4:00PM
Howe Russell
E130

* Reception to follow in the atrium

Join 8 alumni representing different fields of Geography & Anthropology who work at local companies and public agencies.

5-8 minute presentations followed by questions from students

Invited Speakers:

- Jay Grymes - Chief Meteorologist at WAFB
- Christine Haman Luke - Consultant at Trinity Consultants
- Rachel Watson - Section 106 Review and Compliance (Archaeologist) at Louisiana Division of Archaeology
- Jerome Fournier - Planner and Public Finance Consultant (Self-Employed)
- Steven Ward - Senior Geospatial Scientist at DigitalGlobe
- Michelle Whipp Hanks - Environmental Impact Specialis: at LA Dept. of Transportation and Development
- Teresa Wilson - Forensic Anthropologist at LSU FACES Lab
- Nicholas Enwright - Geographer at USGS National Wetlands Research Center

Career Day offers an exciting opportunity for students to interact with local professionals working in different subfields of Geography and Anthropology. Both Undergraduates and Graduate students in the department are strongly encouraged to attend.